

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A composition for treatment of pollution comprises a first component comprising a carbon containing substance (in) an oil phase and a second component comprising a nutrient in a water phase, the second component being formed as an emulsion within the first component. A third component comprising a diluent is added to the first and second components.

100

20 pavis1112-102.US02